Descendants of Jeff and Polly

Put on your dancin' shoes for the 1993 Reunion

The 1993 Jeff and Polly Hatfield Reunion will be held at the Jenny Wiley State Park August 5 - 8. The Reunion Committee has been hard at work planning a Reunion that combines family fun with traditional and historical activities.

The Reunion activities will be launched by the door decorations which focus on the theme of "Home for the Holidays."

The Reunion will kick-off with a Thursday night Pot Luck Dinner followed by traditional family games hosted by Katherine Scott and Sheryle Sullivan. So bring any games that you know the Hatfields have enjoyed over the years and join the fun.

On Friday, August 6, Kenny Helms will fire up the grill at 4:00 p.m. for the Hatfield Family Cookout and Pie Social. Pam Hatfield and Teresa Craig are taking care of other cookout details, including special games. A softball diamond, basketball, volleyball, and tennis court will be available, so bring any equipment for your game of choice. Arnold Norman will auctioneer off the pies for a fun fund raising effort. So bring your pies for the auction. The fun continues at 9:00 when Lisa Rader and Jeff Hatfield will host the Family Beach Party at the Jenny Wiley Pool.

Water sports and pool-side lounging will be the orders of the day for both Friday and Saturday. The Family Golf Outing, hosted by Tommy and Jackie Hatfield, will be played at 8:00 a.m. on Friday and the Fifth Annual Bill Morris Memorial Golf Tournament, chaired by Lowell D. Hatfield and Roger Blackburn, will be played on Saturday at 7:30 a.m. Enclosed is a form to let the Family graduates get diplomas from Iowa to Indiana

Mark Adams, Suzanne Johnson, and Bryan Johnson made graduation from Purdue University a family affair this year as they all graduated in the same class. Mark, an engineering graduate, is working with the Key Communication Company in New Albany, Indiana. Suzanne, who completed her degree in public relations, is with the Bank of Orleans in Orleans, Indiana. Bryan, who majored in agriculture economics, has joined the family farming business. Marlene and Bentley Adams hosted a celebration--although participants were somewhat uncertain whether it was really for the graduates or for Marlene and Bentley having all their children out of college!

Tanya Lynn Hatfield, daughter of Quentin and Lynn Hatfield, graduated in the top 10% of her class from MOCFE High School in Orange City, Iowa. She has been accepted as an honor student in pre-physical therapy at Morehead State University in Morehead, Kentucky. Tanya was a member of the Pride of the Dutchmen band, one of only nine bands from outside California to participate in the 1993 Rose Bowl Parade. Tanya marched in her wooden Dutch shoes for all seven miles of the parade route while her entire family cheered!

Tracy Danyell Blackburn, daughter of Roger and Sharon Blackburn, graduated from Westland High School in Columbus, Ohio. Tracy, who has done professional modeling to earn money for school, has been accepted by the University of Kentucky's Theatrical School. Tracy celebrated with a party hosted by grandparents, Phyllis and Paris Blackburn, on June 20.

organizers know that you plan to play. (You do not have to be pre-registered to play!)

A T-shirt order form is attached if you would like to order your 1993 Hatfield Reunion T-shirt. The 1993 T-shirts will be shown off in the family picture to take place in the Jenny Wiley Court Yard at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday after the Bill Morris Tournament awards are given.

Iva Norman and Karen Morris are organizing the Youth Games to be played at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday afternoon. The Family History Preservation Committee with Katherine and Dovel Scott, T.C. and Opal Hatfield, LeEttie Norman, Jeanettie Smith, Virginia Hatfield, and Ethel Morris will join others at 1:00 p.m. to talk about the Jeff and Polly Hatfield family.

The Big Barn Dance will take place in the Jenny Wiley Lodge beginning at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday night. We will have skits with members of each generation. The generation will be asked to present a skit that relates to members of the family and/or to some family event. The skits should be no more than ten minutes long. After the skits we will teach and do some traditional mountain and country-western dances. So bring your dancing shoes and dress in the latest barn dance fashions. Who knows--there could be prizes for your costumes!

As has been our tradition, we will have a buffet table with homemade treats on Saturday night. After all, how can we get together without some of those homemade specialties!

On Sunday, August 8, we'll enjoy a breakfast buffet before traveling back home.

Remember, this is our time of the year to visit with each other and enjoy our rich family heritage. We all are busy, but plan to take this one weekend to be at the 1993 Hatfield Reunion and visit with the family!

Sons and Daughters:

T.C. and Opal Hatfield were special guests at a January birthday party in Cincinnati. T.C. turned 90 on January 7 and Opal was ?? on January 14. T.C. Hatfield, who fractured a hip in February, is recovering well and has been told that he can begin to put weight on his leg. Opal, who has busy nursing T.C., assured the doctor that T.C. would be well enough to be at the 1993 Hatfield Reunion!

Virginia Hatfield has been on another odyssey to Albuquerque, New Mexico in April and Orange City, Iowa in May. She met her four sisters in Albuquerque and El Paso. She has had two cataracts removed and reports that "it's just super!"

On June 27 Katherine Scott, Jeanette Smith, LeEttie Norman, Virginia Hatfield, Blanche Blackburn, and Leslie and Glenda Hatfield celebrated Dovel Scott's birthday and Sheryle and Bill Sullivan's first anniversary. Dovel reports that he wouldn't work hard, but Katherine makes him do so!

LeEttie Norman says that she is keeping busy "doing her own work" and has particularly enjoyed a good meeting at Church.

Ethel Morris has been visiting with daughter, Jan Blair, in Lexington.

Grandchildren:

Grace Hatfield suffered a stroke during the July 4th holiday. She is at the University of Kentucky Medical Center in Lexington, Kentucky.

Polly Jane Breeze has retired from the Jefferson County School System. Her most recent assignment was teaching home economics at the Stuart Middle School. Joe is so delighted with Polly Jane's retirement that he has gone back to work (for at least the third time) as a Senior Investigator in the Special Investigation Division of the Kentucky Attorney General's Office in Frankfort, Kentucky.

Margaret Rader visited the Washington, DC area June 23 - 25 with the Kentucky Federation of Republican Women. One of her unique experiences was dinner with Nina Rose Hatfield and Bill Schmidt in an Ethiopian restaurant in Georgetown. Only Margaret can describe it!

Lowell D. and Pam Hatfield have been in their new house in Zionsville, Indiana with son, Robbie, since January 15.

Paris and Phyllis Blackburn celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary on November 11, 1992, at a surprise party hosted by their children, Roger and Sharon Blackburn, Gary and Teresa Craig, and Rodney and Kim Blackburn.

Great-grandchildren and beyond:

Anthony Scott has applied for leave so that he can travel from his station in Germany to the States in time to visit at the Hatfield Reunion.

Shelby Ann Felty, daughter of Robin and Timothy Felty, was born on February 12, 1993. Her grandparents are Robert and Grace Hatfield.

Stuart and Wendy Hatfield were slightly delayed in traveling to Germany for Stuart's first command. Nonetheless, even the Army can understand a slight delay when it is the March blizzard that shut down the East Coast.

Laura Mays had a baby girl, Nicole Dawn, on June 25, 1993. Nicole, who weighed in at 7 pounds and 15 ounces, is reported to have lots of black hair.

Roger and Sharon Blackburn are the parents of Kaitlyn Dawn Blackburn. Kaitlyn was born on June 3, 1993, and is treasured by her grandparents, Phyllis and Paris Blackburn.

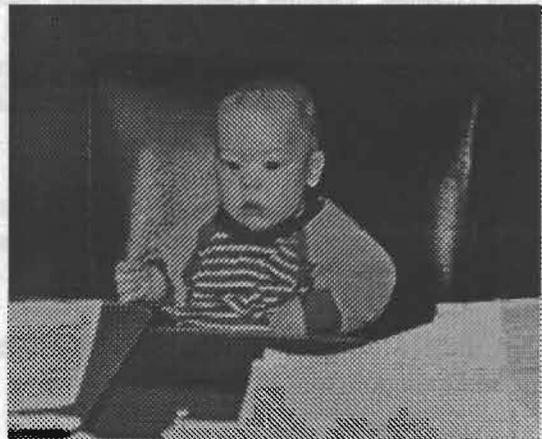

Kaitlyn Dawn Blackburn

Stephen P. Hatfield has begun a new job with the First Third Bank in Louisville, Kentucky.

Sherri and Mark Brooker are moving to Arkansas where Mark has a new job as the National Account Manager for Day-Spring Cards, a division of Outreach Publication. They also enjoyed a visit in Corpus Christi from Polly and Joe Breeze and Marlene and Bentley Adams.

Tiffany and Tim Sallee have built a new home in Whiteland, Indiana.

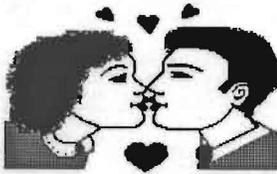

Adam Christopher Bowe, born in October 1992, is already busy helping his Uncle Steve Hatfield out with the insurance business! He has been quiet enough at home to allow his dad, Chris, to earn a 3.8 in his studies of physical therapy at the University of Kentucky.

Adam Christopher Bowe

Anita Hatfield has finished her freshman year at Florida State University and Cassie Bowe has finished her year at the University of Kentucky.

Jennifer Norman traveled to Michigan to camp with her church group.

Veronica weds Joseph in Georgetown

Veronica Fain Morris, daughter of Paul and Eleanor Morris, wed Joseph Patrick Covington on June 5, 1993, at the Northside Christian Church in Georgetown. The couple honeymooned on Saint Thomas in the Virgin Islands and are residing in Georgetown, Kentucky.

Veronica, who will graduate from Georgetown College in August, is a member of Sigma Kappa. Joseph, a graduate of Georgetown College, is employed by the Scott County Board of Education.

Shelley marries Tommy in Alabama

Shelley Dawn Hatfield Rader married John Thomas Hone on May 8, 1993, in Huntsville, Alabama. Shelley was attended by her sister, Lisa Rader, while Tommy's father, John Hone, was the best man. Other participants in the wedding party included Spencer Wright, as the flower child, Tyler Wright, as the ring bearer, and Myron Rader and Trey Wright who ushered and lit candles. Tyler carried the rings on a pillow made by Opal Hatfield, the grandmother of the bride, for the occasion. A reception was held at the Church after the wedding.

Shelley and Tommy are living in Birmingham, Alabama. Tommy is finishing his engineering degree at the University of Alabama, while Shelley is a manager with Arby's.
